LOYOLA COLLEGE, under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers, is admirably situated in the garden district of the City of New Orleans, on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park. The Prytania, Clio, St. Charles, Tulane, Coliseum and Henry Clay street cars make it easily accessible from all parts of the City. Pending the erection of ample College buildings, the classes are conducted for the present in two elegant and spacious buildings overlooking the College campus.

The class rooms are airy and lightsome and equipped with the most modern school furniture.

A vast campus, lawn tennis and basket ball courts and a hand ball alley offer the students unsurpassed opportunities for wholesome exercise in the open air.

To insure as much as possible individual supervision or personal tutoring, the number of students in each class is strictly limited.

The plan of studies at Loyola is the same as that followed in other Colleges of the Society of Jesus. Brilliant results, extending over more than three hundred years, have won for Jesuit educational methods the keen appreciation of a host of fair-minded and eminent critics in every part of the world.

AVENUE TO CAMPUS

The Jesuit system of education, aims at developing, side by side, the moral and intellectual faculties of the student, and sending forth to the world men of sound judgment, of acute and rounded intellect, of upright and manly conscience. And since men are not made better citizens by the mere accumulation of knowledge, without a guiding and controlling force, the principal faculties to be developed are the moral faculties. Morality is to be taught continuously; it must be the underlying base, the vital force supporting and animating the whole organic structure of education. It must be the atmosphere the student breathes; it must suffuse with its light all that he reads, illumining what is noble and exposing what is base, giving to the true and the false their relative light and shade.

In a word, the purpose of Jesuit teaching is to lay a solid substructure in the whole mind and character for any superstructure of science, professional and special, as well as for the building up of moral life, civil and religious.

Announcement

Studies will be resumed Wednesday,
September 8th, 1909.

THE yearly session is divided into two terms of five months each, the first beginning on the first Wednesday of September and the second on the first day of February. The daily session, judiciously interrupted by helpful relaxation, is from 9 a. m. to 2:45 p. m. Forty-five minutes at noon, will be allowed for lunch.

Monthly reports of the students' standing in all branches, in punctuality, application and deportment, will be sent to parents and guardians, who should sign and return them to the Vice President.

The co-operation of parents in securing prompt and regular attendance and the faithful performance of the tasks assigned as home work, will greatly contribute to the success of the school.

LAWN AND CAMPUS

Non-Catholics will be admitted and their religious opinions scrupulously respected, nor shall they be debarred from any of the College honors and distinctions because of their religious tenets.

Loyola College, being as yet unendowed, depends entirely for its support on tuition fees.

The Tuition Fee is $120.00 per annum, payable one-half in September, the other half in February.

For further particulars, please apply to the President or Vice President of Loyola College, St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park.

Special Course in Philosophy

Loyola offers a free course in Philosophy to Professional men and to young men preparing for the Professions. Lectures are given twice a week in Loyola Hall. For further particulars apply to the President or Vice-President.

Charter of the Marquette Association for Higher Education.

STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF ORLEANS,) CITY OF NEW ORLEANS.)

Be it known that on this 11th day of the month of March, in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seven, and of the independence of the United States of America the One Hundred and Thirty-First, before me, CHARLES I. DENECHAUD, a notary public, duly commissioned and sworn in and for the Parish of Orleans, and therein residing, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the parties whose names are hereunto subscribed, all of full age and residents of this parish and city, who declared that, availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State for the formation of corporations for scientific, literary, religious and charitable purposes, they have covenanted and agreed, and bound themselves and those by them represented, as well as such other persons as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes and under the stipulations and conditions set forth in the following articles, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

This corporation shall be known and shall have corporate existence under the style and name of "THE MARQUETTE ASSOCIATION FOR HIGHER EDUCATION." In its said name and corporate capacity it shall exist and continue for ninety-nine years from the date hereof, and shall have and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, immunities and franchises, and shall be subject to all the limitations and duties which now are, or hereafter may be granted and imposed by law upon corporations organized for scientific or literary purposes, and for that purpose it shall have power to acquire, hold and dispose of, purchase, lease, sell, or otherwise alienate all manner of property, real or personal, and receive all manner of donations, legacies and bequests. Its domicile shall be in the City of New Orleans, and all citations or other legal process shall be served upon the President, or in his absence, upon one of the Vice-Presidents.

ARTICLE II.

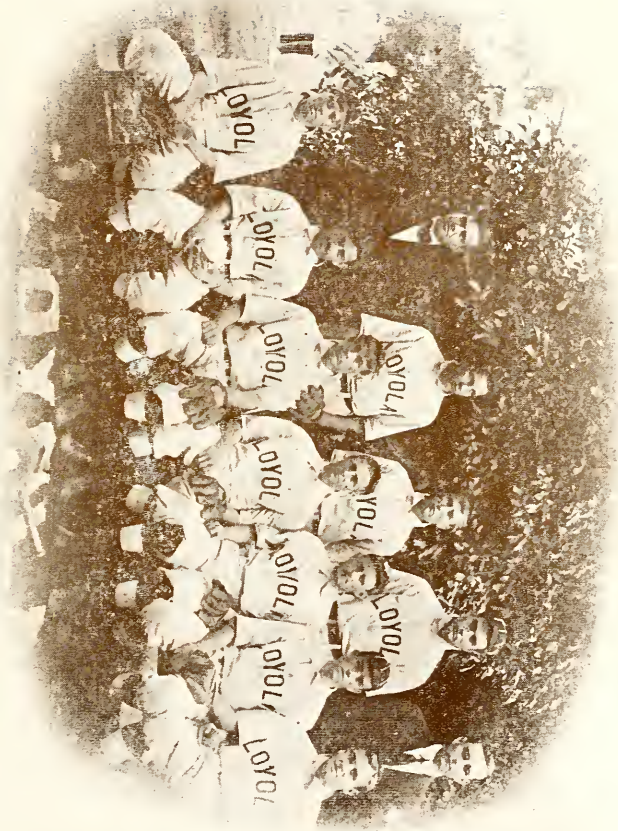

The objects and purposes of this corporation are hereby declared to be: To advance the study and knowledge of the classics, the arts and sciences; to further the cause of higher education, to build, establish and provide for the maintenance of a Catholic university to be located in the City of New Orleans, and to be placed under the direction and become the property of the order of Catholic priests called the Company of Jesus and commonly known as the Jesuit Fathers; and for that purpose and to that end to collect money and raise funds by such means and in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE III.

The Very Reverend Provincial of the New Orleans Province of Jesuits shall be ex-officio Honorary President of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

The active officers of this corporation shall consist of a President, four Vice-Presidents (known respectively as First, Second, Third and Fourth Vice-President), a Secretary and a Treasurer. They shall be chosen by the Board of Directors from among themselves at their first meeting after election, and shall hold their office for one year, or until their successors be chosen; provided, however, that the Fourth Vice-President shall be appointed by the Honorary President and shall hold office at his pleasure.

COLLEGE TEAM '09

ARTICLE V.

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of fifty members of the corporation (exclusive of the Fourth Vice-President), who shall be chosen annually by ballot by the members present at a general meeting to be held for that purpose on the last Thursday in the month of January of each year, and who shall hold office until the next annual meeting or until their successors are duly elected. They shall have full charge and control of the corporation and of its funds and shall have power to establish any and all rules, regulations and by-laws for their own government and that of the corporation not in conflict with law, or with the provisions of this charter; subject, however, to such restrictions and limitations as may be imposed by the members in general meeting assembled. They shall choose their officers from among themselves as heretofore provided for, except the Fourth Vice-President, who shall be named by the Honorary President and shall be ex-officio a member of said Board. They shall also fix the number necessary to constitute a quorum of said Board, and shall fill any vacancy occurring in their number, but no proxy shall ever be voted or counted at any meeting of said Board.

ARTICLE VI.

Proposed amendments to this charter shall be submitted in writing, signed by ten members in good standing, at some general meeting and shall be acted upon at a general meeting to be called for that purpose by publication not less than four times in thirty days in one of the daily newspapers published in the City of New Orleans, and may be adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present at such meeting.

ARTICLE VII.

This corporation shall be dissolved at the written request of four-fifths of the members in good standing addressed to the President thereof. Whenever this corporation shall be dissolved, its affairs shall be liquidated by five commissioners appointed for the purpose by the President, but in that event the assets and funds thereof, shall not be distributed amongst the members thereof, but shall be applied to the purposes of the corporation in such manner as may to said commissioners seem best.

ARTICLE VIII

This charter shall go into effect at once, but no election for directors shall be held thereunder until the last Thursday of the month of January in the year Nineteen Hundred and Eight (1908), until which time the Board of Directors shall consist of the following, to-wit:

Jos. Bayle, W. J. Behan, Martin Behrman, Rev. Albert Biever, S.J., Jos. E. Burguieres, Wm. P. Burke, John F. Clark, Pierre Crabites, H. S. Crozier, Chas. Culbertson, R. C. Davey, Horatio Lange, J. B. And until that time the officers shall be as follows, to-wit: PRESIDENT, B. A. OXNARD; FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT, WM. P. BURKE; SECOND VICE-PRESIDENT, T. P. THOMPSON; THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT, JNO. F. CLARK; FOURTH VICE-PRESIDENT, REV. ALBERT BIEVER, S. J.; SECRETARY, GEORGE W. YOUNG; TREASURER, WALTER R. STAUFFER.

Thus done and passed in my office, in the City of New Orleans, the day, month and year first above written, in presence of William H. Eyrnes, Jr., and Pierre D. Olivier, competent witnesses, who have hereto signed with said appearers and me, notary, after due reading of the whole.
